Student Obligations:

- 1- Just after signing and sending this form by email to amoradance@facebook.com, if you are a private student then you will first deposit the 50% of the total fee of the course (booking fee) by a BANK TRANSFER to the bank details. But if you are a student who wants to come into a group, then your Booking fee MUST be complete fee of the Course. Once Amora receives your booking fee, she will sent a confirmation by email, this email will be the guaranty that you have reserved the course for the dates that you have discussed by email before making your payment and also should be the same as the dates and times filled in this form. The remaining 50% of the fee will be GIVEN BY CASH on the first introduction meeting, face to face, teacher with student, before the starting of the course. All payments done to AmoraDance or Amora are non-refundable, unless you get into a group, and after making your full payment, you may get discounted fee back to you, depending on the number of students in your group.
- 2- You are responsible of getting our own VISA, you can get a tourist visa in your arrival to Egypt that it cost about 15$ and is for about 40 days. We, the teachers, directors or the dance centers, do not provide with any type of documentation for you to get a visa, such as invitation letters.
- 3- You are responsible of attending to all the hours of the course, you are not allowed to miss a single class, and also time-keeping is essential. If you cannot attend one day because you got sick, you should inform teacher as soon as they feel sick, do not leave the teacher to come all the way to the classroom and to be waiting for you. The student who disconnects her mobile while teacher is waiting to start a class, the student immediately loses her course and any chances to be entitled of any attendance or level certificates, the course will be canceled in that moment. Students must respect teachers' time and energy, if you come late, keep your phone on until you arrive to the class and call the teacher before the start of the class to inform where you are and how long will take you to arrive.
- 4- To be entitled of Certificates, you must complete all the contracted hours, successfully pass written and practical homework and exams. Once every exam is corrected, you have the right to see your errors, but you are not allowed to keep a copy of your exams. If you are studying a course to become a teacher or a professional performer, then you should record a video before the starting of the course and another one will be recorded after the end of the course in front of an audience and two more teachers, for signing the learning development achieved. The two videos will be kept by the teacher and a copy for you. Your video will not be published unless you give the permission. But signing down here, you allow your teacher; Amora or Alia Shams, to use your homework illustrations such as drawings for publish them in books.
- 5- If a teacher comes late at the start of a class, you are obligated to use the space of the pre-booked studio while you wait your teacher to come, you can rehearse your choreographies or practice some moves until your instructor arrives to the class.
- 6- None of our teachers, directors or dance studios are responsible of your belongings, health and safety, you are responsible of yourself in the course hours and in their stay in Egypt. If you are under 18 years old, then AmoraDance needs a written allowance signed by your parents plus you need to send copy of their passports and your birth certificate.

Teacher Obligations:

- 1- Teacher will guide each student with an introductory meeting (before the starting of the course) in how to move around the Egyptian culture and tricks of how to survive in nowadays Egypt.
- 2- Teacher is obligated to come on time to all the classes, teach and correct every single mistake of the student, follow the structure of the course, test the student with practical and written exams, correct the written & practical exams, once they are successfully passed, finally give a signed and stamped Certificate of the subjects that student study with teacher or teachers.

Nowadays the Egyptian Government does not allow any Oriental Belly Dance School in Cairo, for this reason, our Certificates are not recognized by an Egyptian Organism but they are supervised by a group of Belly Dance Experts who sign to verify that the student has the levels and capacity to perform or teach professionally and internationally. By signing this application form, you agree that you understand all above, you agree to all the terms, all information you have enter above is correct and if you do any data changes, you must notify us on the same day.
