Main teacher: Amora Shams, check her biography (Belly dancer and teacher since 1993)

Amora is specialist in creating BellyDancers in record time, probably one of the most passionate teachers in the world

Other teachers of this course when it's done in Egypt:

Samir Heisen (Folklore Dance teacher over 30 years dancing at Reda Troup), Hanny Amien (Tanoura Sufi Dervish Dance teacher and dancer at El Guri Temple) and Bebo (one of the best darbuka players of Egypt)

When the courses are done in Egypt, Amora does extra activities out of the course, with her students, such as accompany them to see other belly dancers on stage (but students must cover her expenses when she accompany students), if you want to get a good price for bellydance dresses, Amora will take you to her costume designers. If requested by the student, it is also available a rehearsing session with a live orchestra, directed by Amora, but is an extra fee added to the fee of the course. Or also can be arranged extra classes with other teachers also as extra expenses by students.

If students want to get the UNESCO CERTIFICATES STUDYING AMORA COURSES, after the 70 hours course they will have to do one year dancing experience, then they will have to study another course that we call it "The Belly Dance Final Course", this last Course it will be also done in 20 days it cost a fee of 2.500 euros, and will be guided by Sahar Zaki who has been teaching her sister Belly Dance style over 20 years, Sahar Zaki it's the sister of the MOST LOVED AND RESPECTED BELLY DANCER OF EGYPT in the last 50 years,
